Maximum Under Law Assessed to Cover Spending

Hamlin area folks will receive a "sock" in the old pocketbook now when they go to pay state taxes.

"Sock" for property owners in Seurry and other counties of the state was contained, in fact, in action Monday by the State Automatic Tax Board at Austin in setting a property tax rate of 72 cents on the $100 valuation—maximum permitted under the constitution and statutes.

In 1946 the state property tax rate was 37 cents per $100 property valuation—the lowest since 1912.

The Jones County tax assessor-collector's office and others over Texas received news of the state tax board action Tuesday.

If you, for instance, paid $7.40 in state property taxes on your homestead last year, this year you will fork over $14.40. That little calculation is based on the assumption that your homestead was state tax valued at $5,000 and that you claimed your $3,000 exemption.

It reduces to simple terms what the State Automatic Tax Board at Austin did this week in hiking the state rate to the maximum provided under the constitution.

Last year, it will be remembered, the board levied no property tax for general fund purposes because there was a substantial surplus in the general fund.

But Monday, an Austin dispatch reveals, the board had no choice in raising the rate because the Legislature had wiped out the surplus, appropriated or allocated for the public schools virtually every dollar of anticipated revenue and passed no new tax bill.

The board is made up of Governor Beauford H. Jester, George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, and Jesse James, state treasurer.

It is understood the board set the property tax rate for general revenue purposes at 35 cents on the $100 property valuations; that for the available school fund and 35 cents, and that for confederate pensions at two cents. The latter is set by statute.

Tell your fortune?

"Such a lucky lady -- with a pretty house, nice husband and children--lots and lots of servants!"

"You're wrong about the servants. I live in a 6-room house, and balance a budget!"

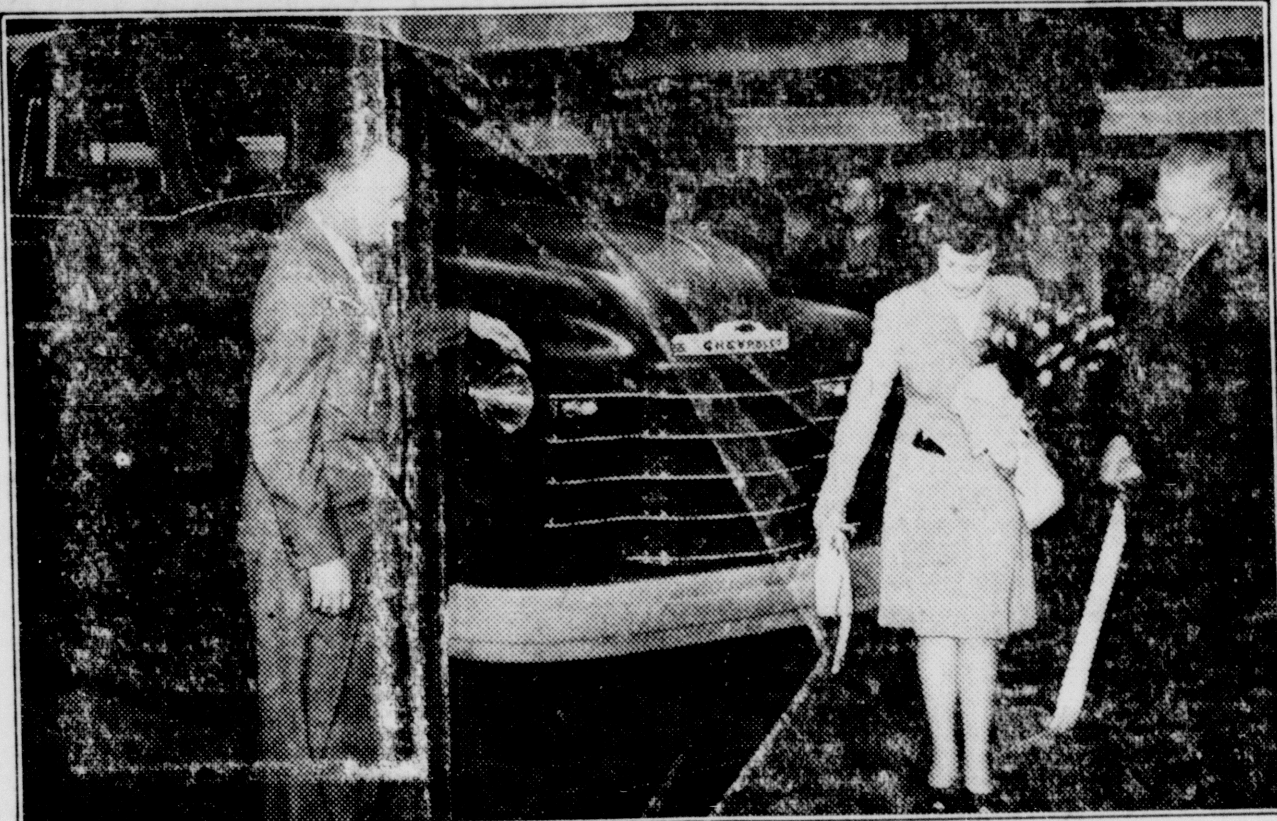

"But, Madam, you have servants to help you in every room! And you pay them very little, indeed. You have a servant to assist with your laundry. Another to help cook your meals. A third to protect your food. A fourth to clean. More to heat and light your home, and entertain you when you're bored. You have electrical servants, Madam--the most willing and dependable servants in the world!"

"Of course, I have electricity, but I never thought--"

"This army of domestic help costs you less than a bottle of milk a day! So you see electric service is not only high in efficiency, it's low in cost! Twenty years ago the average family got only half as much electric service for the money as it gets today. And think how many more jobs electricity does around the house in 1947! Yes, Madam, yours is a very good fortune, indeed!"

The trucks that will bring true postwar design to the highways of America, Chevrolet's new "advance-design" line of commercial vehicles, will be introduced to the trucking industry June 28 by Chevrolet dealers across the country. Incorporating a variety of new features that assure greater operating efficiency, load-carrying ability and highway safety, the new trucks are said to be more rugged and durable than ever before. First units were built in Chevrolet's Janesville (Wis.) assembly plant, and were appropriately hailed. Here the "Queen of America's Dairyland," Miss Betty Gene Gardner, Ridgeway, Wis., christens the new vehicle as Gov. Oscar Rennebohm, Wisconsin's chief executive (right), and R. W. Podlesak, Janesville plant manager, look on.

BOYCE HOUSE— "Gives You Texas"

Visited Oklahoma City recently to make a speech, first I'd ever spoken in Oklahoma. Upon strolling out of the hotel soon after arriving, saw billows of black smoke--big fire was in progress in the center of the business district.

Next morning, was awakened by a huge clap of thunder. The Oklahoma City weatherman had predicted "no rain", so all the weather did was to present an electric storm, whip up a 59-mile an hour wind that flattened some temporary buildings and pour down three inches of rain in a couple of hours. In fact, the weatherman missed so badly, I thought I was back in Texas.

The visitor was made to feel like a "visiting fireman" for Fire Chief

McAlpine took me for a tour of the city. Half a mile before you get to the Capitol, there is a row of oil wells on State-owned land. The derrick of the last one is 100 yards or so from the Capitol but the hole was so curved by directional drilling that the bottom is under the Capitol.

In front of that structure is an immense flight of steps. You climb it and then, before you can break in to a smile of triumph, there is an even more immense flight of steps in front of you. You climb that--and discover that you are on the third floor of that building! The Capitol is a very impressive edifice.

One of the biggest thrills in visiting Dallas is to ride the street cars. Lately, I've had to go back and forth between the office of Harley Hightower in Oak Cliff (he is the publisher of "Cub Reporter") and downtown Dallas quite a bit; and the street cars cross the Trinity on a long, trestle-like bridge, with a few rises, dips and curves thrown in--negotiated at so lively a pace that it reminds one of the "thriller" at an amusement park. Look far below and you see cars crawling along a highway, engines puffing through railroad yards and tiny figures of fishermen on the bank of the river. The wheels of the trolley rattle and clatter and it sways up and down and the wind tosses your hair. All this for only eight cents.

Three Farm Labor Camps Completed In Fisher County

Checks for $300 were presented to three Fisher County communities Tuesday morning at Roby, signifying construction of three reception centers for migratory farm laborers. The checks were presented by A. & M. College Extension Service in compliance with the government program.

Fisher County centers are located at Roby, Rotan and Sylvester. Although not completed, the money from the state will be used to speed completion in order that they will be ready for use soon.

Last fall Fisher County had no center of any kind. All three towns are now listed in a catalogue describing the state's 53 camps of this type.

A Great Oil Company introduces a Great NEW Oil!

Phillips Research brings you the finest motor oil for your car ever to bear
Phillips 66 trade-mark!

When a great oil company brings out a completely new, different motor oil--that's news!

And when that oil company is willing to stake its reputation--to come right out and say, "This is the finest motor oil for your car ever to bear the Phillips 66 trade-mark!"

That's food for thought for every man who owns a car!

This new Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil is the result of extensive research, conducted over a number of years by Phillips research scientists. It is of the modern detergent (self-cleaning), oxidation-resistant type. Lessons learned in developing heavy duty lubricants for Army tanks and trucks, the experiences of others who have developed detergent-type oils, and demands of engine manufacturers for their higher-speed, higher-pressure engines, have all been taken into consideration.

The base stocks from the Oklahoma fields, which oil men now recognize as among the finest in the world, are another contributing feature of this great new oil.

This new Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil is now on sale at all Phillips 66 Dealers. We urge you to provide your car with our finer, newer automotive lubricant.

Getting telephones for those waiting

1 Besides a telephone instrument, we need cables and switchboards to furnish telephone service.

2 Factories are turning out this complex equipment faster and faster.

3 But the need is nation-wide. In the Southwest alone, equipment is needed in 700 cities to serve 235,000 people.

There are still shortages and delays, but we are getting our share of what the factories produce and we're putting it in as quickly as we can, in as many places as we can.

One thing we do know...if ingenuity and hard work can bring it about, we'll have this job licked one of these days.

Berdie Louise Daniel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Daniel of here, became the bride of William Roy Page, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Page of Abilene, in a beautiful candlelight ceremony read Friday evening at the St. Paul Methodist Church in Abilene.

Rev. Earl G. Hamlett, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before a white arch and background of greenery. Pedestal baskets of white gladioluses arranged in rainbow shape were placed on either side of a smaller arrangement of the flowers in a floor basket. Marked with white streamers, the family pews were decorated with nosegays of white flowers.

Leslie Morton, accompanied by Mrs. Owen Stinnett at the organ, sang "At Dawning" and "Lullaby". Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Stinnett.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon dress, which was made by the bridegroom's mother from a parachute given by a brother, Leroy Daniel. The dress featured a round neckline and a yoke of illusion bordered with seed pearls, sleeves pointed over the hand, and insets of Val lace between the skirt gores.

The bridal coronet, which was covered with seed pearls, and the floor length veil were borrowed from Mrs. Rumsch, the 38-year-old bluish veil worn by Mrs. Page belongs to Mrs. Meta Rumsch of San Diego, California, mother-in-law of Mrs. Rumsch, sister of the bridegroom.

For something old, the bride wore a cameo lavallier, which belongs to an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Wiederbush of Austin. Something borrowed was an embroidered handkerchief of silk batiste owned by Mrs. Lee Balfanz. It was brought by her daughter, Mrs. Arville Richardson, from Lucerne, Switzerland.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations centered by a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Attendants for the bride were Beverly Balfanz, maid of honor who wore a yellow dress and carried a blue gladiolus, and Mrs. Irving Cumbe Jr. and Mrs. Orville Rumsch, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore powder blue dresses, matching net headdresses and carried yellow gladioluses.

Mrs. Daniel wore a white and aqua crepe evening dress with white pockets, white mesh gloves and a corsage of pink gladioluses. The bridegroom's mother wearing a powder blue chiffon dress with a pink gladiolus corsage.

WE'RE ONE YEAR OLD!

As we observe our first anniversary we wish to thank you for your patronage and friendship.

Mrs. Mel Rust Thurman invited guests into the backyard, where the bride's table was laid with Irish lace and centered by fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioluses. Mrs. J. L. Delis served the four-tiered colonial cake, and Mrs. Lee Balfanz presided at the punch bowl.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Edlie Prock and Eleanor Dellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Page left following the reception for a two-week trip to Denver, Colorado, Yellowstone Park and Salt Lake City. For travel, she chose a double-breasted white linen suit with three-quarter sleeves and apple back. Her hat was of black affeta and other accessories were black suede.

Helpful ideas for busy canning days

by Carol Drake

Can, jam, preserve, conserve—that accounts for the spicy fragrances now wafting from kitchen windows. These tips for canning with little to-do are for the busy homemaker with much to do.

...A PRACTICAL FACT. Ten cent store work gloves protect hands when lifting jars from hot water bath or pressure canner, tightening jar lids or removing petcock.

...SAVE TIME: MAKE CHILI SAUCE AND TOMATO JUICE AT THE SAME TIME. Wash and quarter about 10 pounds tomatoes. Simmer until soft, about 30 minutes, with chopped celery, onion, green pepper, carrots and whole spices. (The spices loosely in cheesecloth bag, easy to remove.) Drain off juice and fill hot jars. Process in boiling water bath 35 minutes. Put tomatoes, celery, onion, green pepper and carrots through colander or food mill; add vinegar. Cook until pulp is thick enough to round up on spoon. Fill hot jars; process in boiling water bath 1 hour.

...KEEP CRYSTALS OUT OF GRAPE JELLY. Prepare juice and let stand overnight in refrigerator. Crystals form and settle to the bottom. Dip off juice, proceed with jelly making.

...BE PARTICULAR IF YOU WANT PRAISEWORTHY PICKLES! Use fresh spices—1 ounce whole mixed spices is enough for 4 gallons of pickles; soft water (soften hard water by boiling, letting stand 24 hours to settle), and good recipes. Write to Carol Drake for "PRIZE PICKLE RECIPES." Box 2110, Dept. PR, San Francisco 26, Calif.

TRUE STORIES of WEST TEXAS

'The Lost Arrowhead'

An air of peacefulness permeated the O. J. Stone Ranch on that April morning of 1887. Located in an open valley that was crossed by the Clear Fork of the Brazos, its nearest neighbor was Camp Cooper, five miles to the east. It was a premeval setting, uncluttered by people; for neither Fort Griffin nor the later county seat of Albany had yet been founded.

But there was no peace for a agitated man pacing the stone enclosed yard of the old ranch. Two days before two of his sons, George and William, had joined other settlers going in pursuit of a band of marauding Indians. And last night he had dreamed that one of his boys was severely wounded. Now, he was waiting for a messenger, fearing the worst.

He was still pacing the yard when William and John Anderson, weary with an all night's ride, came with the news.

George had been shot. The arrow entering his body above the navel, had broken when the shaft was pulled out, and its head could not be found. They thought that perhaps it might have become lost in the loose sand when jerked out.

While their elders were making preparations to receive the wounded boy, should he still be alive, the children took turns acting as look-outs; but a full hour before the party's expected arrival the boys were all on the smoke house together. As the scouting group wound slowly into sight, a shout of joy went up and he news was called to the anxious parents. The full number of horse-men had been counted!

George Reynolds was indeed sitting on his horse. But was only from grim determination, he wanting to reassure those waiting loved ones. As they had come into sight of the Old Stone Ranch he had insisted that he be taken from the litter. This litter was made of the men's kayahs or cowhide packs swung between two horses. The horses were tied together, heads and tails, and led by two men on foot. Thus they had traveled the 35 or 40 miles, except when the horses had had to go single file; he was then laid across his saddle.

Dr. James D. Ray soon arrived from Weatherford, having been brought by Sam Newcomb, a brother-in-law of young Reynolds. They had ridden night and day to cover the 100 and some odd intervening miles.

George Reynolds, future cattle baron and assistant founder of the First National Banks of both Albany and Oklahoma City, regained his health. But his father's psychic premonition of death was not without foundation. Sixteen years and three and a half months after that fateful shot, an iron arrowhead, blunt and scaled with rust, was removed from George Reynolds' back.

Dr. States That Teeth Needs Constant Care

Hamlin people are warned this week of the fact that dental decay may often occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist.

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to the germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the practice of proper oral hygiene, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. said.

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to have their dental defects corrected, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the state health officer. "There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduced masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declares, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

by Jeanelle Bryant

Hamlin streets are always dotted with people any hour of the day and until about 11:00 p. m. Isn't that a compliment to our town? Everyone seems to enjoy coming here to buy or sell, or merely to meet their friends and have a friendly chat. There is a spirit of friendliness on the part of the citizenry and business men that makes them feel "at home". May such a spirit never die, for if it does our town will cease to be "The West's Best."

A traveler who happened through here on a recent Wednesday afternoon was so impressed with the large crowd, that he took time off to inquire from some city officials the reason for such a gathering. "Appreciation Day" was the answer. The crowds seem to be growing large er and more enthusiastic each week.  Most upsetting thing which has happened around this office the past week was our putting the wrong stickers on some of the Herald's last week. On those whose subscriptions were to expire soon we placed those little yellow slips that say "We hate to lose a friend and that's the reason we are so disappointed that you have not renewed your subscription, which expired several weeks ago," etc. They should have gotten the white ones with different greetings. If we made such a mistake on your paper, we're sorry. And we were glad to get a personal visit from those who were protesting. Thanks for coming in to tell us first and not getting angry and telling others. ***

When our husband was a little boy in Missouri he knew the Rev. Welborn Bowman, who conducted the final rites for Mrs. Martha Truman. He doesn't know Harry Truman though, which would make a much more interesting item for this column. ***

Does the water taste different lately? ***

We never thought we would drive

so far just to eat lunch under a tree. But we did go all the way to Abilene State Park before a tree was found to suit our pleasure. People are certainly queer. They will drive for miles and miles to spread their cold picnic food on the ground for the bugs and ants to help devour, when it would have been much simpler to stay home and eat a hot appetizing meal. Anything for variety, that is our motto. ***

The weather, as usual, is the most talked of subject today. And we are almost afraid to state that we need a good rain. ***

Many say the rain would do wonders for some crops and others argue that it would do harm to the cotton crop in that the bugs would appear. Guess we will just have to let the Good Lord decide what is best. He has better judgment than any of us anyway. ***

Only 120 more shopping days until Christmas. If you have nothing more important to do, count them. ***

Have you noticed the many beautiful daisies which are thriving in many yards in spite of the heat and dry weather? They certainly are pleasing to the eye on a warm day. ***

John C. Bryant, vice-president of Bryant-Link Company and husband of the former Arlene Morgan of here, was made vice-president of the American Retailers Association at Saint Louis last week. Quite a distinction. He says the only recognition she received here is that he is Arlene's husband. ***

The favorite daughter has a new box of modeling clay and the office force has tried their skill at making animals and objects with that stuff. You should see some of the monstrosities that we have on display. It is hard to determine whether they are man or beast. ***

Would you like to be guest columnist in this newspaper some week? If so, just let it be known. Be glad to turn over the old typewriter to a new face and some better ideas.

Meat Supply for Future Not Too Bright in Nation

Outside those persons in Jones and other counties who are raising their meat supplies, the overall outlook for increased meat supplies is not too bright.

So reveals a dispatch from Washington, which says the normal fall and winter movement in Jones and Fisher and neighboring counties will boost meat supplies about 15 per cent, but that 1948 is not so promising.

The county's 12,500 citizens are given this thorough summary of the meat outlook:

Meat prices this fall and winter should be "moderately lower" than they are now.

The crop outlook, coupled with anticipated large grain exports, may "actually result in some decrease" in meat supplies next year.

"The real cost of meat to consumers" has not increased much, it is stated, since the death of CPA if black market overcharges and subsidies are considered.

Prices, Jones County people are advised, have advanced this year because of a seasonal falling off in supplies—over which packers have no control—and the fact that general employment and wages are high, resulting in a greatly increased demand.

Service Medal Going To Veterans of Navy

Beginning August 1, Chief H. F. Lindsey, recruiter in charge of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at Abilene, will issue the American Defense service medal and World War II Victory Medal to Navy veterans of Jones and neighboring counties who have been honorably discharged or discharged under honorable conditions.

So a Navy spokesman informs The Herald. The spokesman says that American Defense service medal, for which a number of Jones County boys will be eligible, will be awarded to all ex-Navy personnel who served on active duty between September 9, 1939, and December 7, 1941.

The World War II Victory Medal, it is stated, will be awarded to ex-Navy personnel who served on active duty in World War II between December 7, 1941, and August 31, 1946.

Enlisted personnel of Jones, Fisher and other counties who have or will be entitled to either or both medals will be asked to report to the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Abilene, with original discharge and notice of separation papers.

Honesty as to Purpose.

Executive (Interviewing applicant for responsible position)—"Are you absolutely honest, straightforward and trustworthy?"

"Yes, indeed, I am decidedly just that, sir!"

"If you should enter this office tomorrow and find a wallet containing $100,000 what would you do?"

"What would I do? I'd do nothing and live on my income."

At Nacozdoches, Texas the will of a Civil War veteran is chiseled on his tombstone.

A Pot-Shot—See in the papers where Senator Pappy O'Daniel is coming back to Texas minus his hill-billy band for the purpose of telling Texans about how the country is going to the dogs. And Pappy is one of the lawmakers. But of course, it's no fault of Pappy's, to hear him tell it, and if it were not for him being in Washington the Mississippi River would change its course.

Did you ever stand on the street corner and listen to Pappy during one of his campaigns? Did you ever see him look anybody in the eye? He can't do it. Our way of thinking, it's poor business to send any man to Washington who can't look you in the eye throwing off steam.

In the past Pappy has worked on the campaign of one old, sick and afflicted. We wonder what kind of campaign tactics he will come out with now since he has thrown the old folks overboard, joined up with the Republican big shots and playing the devil in general.—A Darden-Gram.

HOSPITAL NEWS

REMEMBER that the Hamlin Hospital is a Memorial Institution of Service, to be dedicated to the memory of those young men who made the supreme sacrifice in the recent two terrible World Wars—an appropriate Memorial Tablet will carry their names.

REMEMBER that the Hamlin Hospital is being developed by voluntary contributions by those who desire to see a hospital in this Hamlin area.

REMEMBER that to be a share-holder in the hospital property it takes at least $50.00, but any amount or any kind of gift will help.

REMEMBER that the date of opening of the hospital will depend on the interest the people take. Many have said, "Oh, yes, we want it, and we will take a share, but we'll wait." Now months have passed, the building is nearing completion, and some keep saying, "We will, but later." Hamlin community has neglected their health interest for 40 years . . . why not join your neighbors and let us finish a good job well started? This thing is important to every person and family on a level basis. The poorest person can show his interest and have a part. . . . The richest can best do without a hospital and a doctor in Hamlin by going miles away and paying the extra costs . . . so THEY are going to pay somewhere, and why not leave it in Hamlin to develop this community instead of paying out to other communities or sending it to Washington?

Private Rooms to Be Furnished

Last week we reported one family who wishes to furnish private room. The list now stands:

J. B. Terrell and wife
George Malouf and wife
Fred Young and relatives.

An order is to be placed right away for this department of furnishings, and it will be better to order all we now need at one time. This is one way YOU can help. It should be regarded as a privilege and not a duty. The furniture must be nice, but not extravagant.

REMEMBER the Hamlin Hospital will be just what the people want it to be . . . just as nice and just as large. Manifest your interest while you have this chance. Do not throw "damper" on something that might save a life! It takes hundred boosters to offset the damage one knocker can do.

New Improvements Began This Week on Property

Two building projects got underway this week on the Stamford highway, which is rapidly becoming a commercial center.

Carl Murrell of Dallas, who is opening the Carl Murrell Chevrolet Company here is preparing the building for occupancy he has leased just east of Irwin Motor Company. The large building will receive a new floor and plans to start at once on construction of a 24-foot addition in front which will house modern offices, display room and other facilities. Mr. and Mrs. Murrell and son, Bob, were here this week looking for living quarters and getting their new business started.

T. E. Shelburne & Son, local contractors, started leveling ground and preparing foundations for a new building to house the Wade Implement Company, Massey-Harris dealer, now located across from The Herald. The new building is also on the Stamford highway and north of the Wade Implement Company, International Harvester dealer. The building will be 100 x 50 feet, it is said, and should help improve the entire street.

Workmen this week are stuccoing the exterior of the Banner Creamery building and formal opening is expected to be held soon. Quite a bit of ice is now being manufactured daily at the local plant.

Good progress is also reported on the hospital, school buildings, locker plant and on various new homes now being built.

Plant Operator Badly Mangled, No Witnesses

Body Discovered By Other Workmen

Fellow workers found his badly mangled body when they went to work about 8:45 and it was believed the fatal accident had just happened a few minutes earlier.

Apparently his arm was pulled into the machinery first, crushing it and carrying his body also into the conveyance tearing and crushing it extremely.

Mr. McNeill, a native of Alabama, had worked at the plant for almost six years. He was unmarried and made his home with the only relative who lived here, a sister, Mrs. S. F. Phipps.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Phipps, Hamlin; two nieces, four nephews, two aunts, Mrs. W. A. Criswell, Anson; and Mrs. T. J. Bridges, Paris and one uncle, J. R. Webb of Clinton.

To Be Read Softly.

They apparently had not met for some time. They were sitting in the twilight together listening to the languorous roll of the sea below.

"And you say that last week you were in town where I live?" she asked softly.

"Uh-huh."

"And you thought of me, John?"

"Yep," replied John. "I said to myself, 'Why, I remember—this is where what's-her-name lives!'"

Maximum Under Law Assessed to Cover Spending

Hamlin area folks will receive a "soak" in the old pocketbook now when they go to pay state taxes. "Soak" for property owners in Scurry and other counties of the state was contained, in fact, in action Monday by the State Automatic Tax Board at Austin in setting a property tax rate of 72 cents on the $100 valuation—maximum permitted under the constitution and statutes.

In 1946 the state property tax rate was 37 cents per $100 property valuation—the lowest since 1912.

The Jones County tax assessor-collector's office and others over Texas received news of the state tax board action Tuesday.

If you, for instance, paid $7.40 in state property taxes on your homestead last year, this year you will fork over $14.40. That little calculation is based on the assumption that your homestead was state tax valued at $5,000 and that you claimed your $3,000 exemption.

It reduces to simple terms what the State Automatic Tax Board at Austin did this week in hiking the state rate to the maximum provided under the constitution.

Last year, it will be remembered, the board levied no property tax for general fund purposes because there was a substantial surplus in the general fund.

But Monday, an Austin dispatch reveals, the board had no choice in raising the rate because the Legislature had wiped out the surplus, appropriated or allocated for the public schools virtually every dollar of anticipated revenue and passed no new tax bill.

The board is made up of Governor Beauford H. Jester, George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, and Jesse James, state treasurer.

It is understood the board set the property tax rate for general revenue purposes at 35 cents on the $100 property valuations; that for the available school fund and 35 cents, and that for confederate pensions at two cents. The latter is set by statute.

A Rube man was fined $600 and costs in a liquor case tried at Haskell. This is believed to be the largest fine ever levied for liquor law violation in the county. Rev. James G. Robbins has resigned as pastor of Curry Chapel Baptist Church. Bob Hill of Seymour won the Tri-County Golf Tournament held at Seymour this year. Next year the event comes to Haskell. Mattison High School has some new shop equipment, secured from the government.

Money in Circulation Shows Drop in Nation

Money in circulation in the Hamlin trade area and elsewhere over the country, one of several rough gauges of inflationary trends, dropped $3.62 per person between June 30, 1946, and July 1 of this year, reports the U. S. treasury.

At the end of June last year, for example, the per capita cash holding was an even $200. By this July 1 it was $196.38.

Tell your fortune?

"Such a lucky lady -- with a pretty house, nice husband and children--lots and lots of servants!"

"You're wrong about the servants. I live in a 6-room house, and balance a budget!"

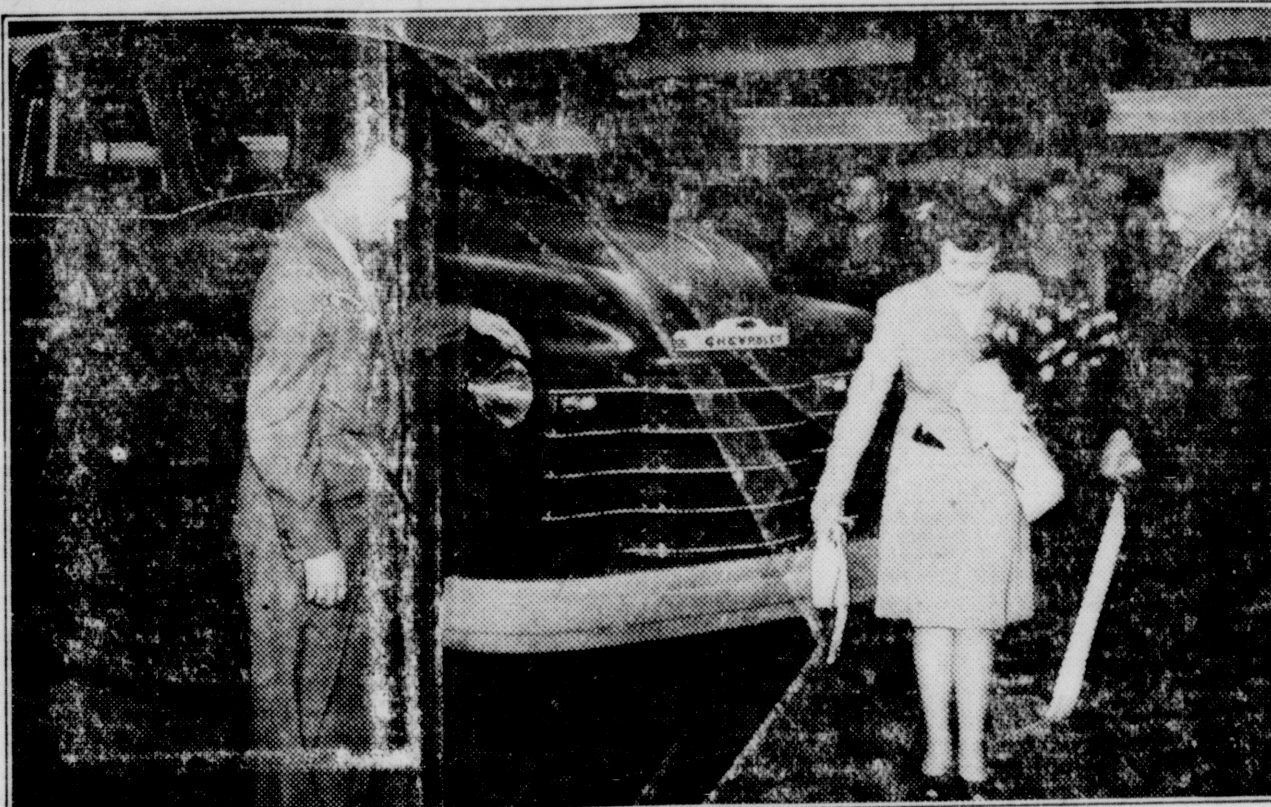

"But, Madam, you have servants to help you in every room! And you pay them very little, indeed. You have a servant to assist with your laundry. Another to help cook your meals. A third to protect your food. A fourth to clean. More to heat and light your home, and entertain you when you're bored. You have electrical servants, Madam--the most willing and dependable servants in the world!"

"Of course, I have electricity, but I never thought--"

"This army of domestic help costs you less than a bottle of milk a day! So you see electric service is not only high in efficiency, it's low in cost! Twenty years ago the average family got only half as much electric service for the money as it gets today. And think how many more jobs electricity does around the house in 1947! Yes, Madam, yours is a very good fortune, indeed!"

"Advance-Design" Chevrolet Trucks Make Bow

The trucks that will bring true postwar design to the highways of America, Chevrolet's new "advance-design" line of commercial vehicles, will be introduced to the trucking industry June 28 by Chevrolet dealers across the country. Incorporating a variety of new features that assure greater operating efficiency, load-carrying ability and highway safety, the new trucks are said to be more rugged and durable than ever before. First units were built in Chevrolet's Janesville (Wis.) assembly plant, and were appropriately hailed. Here the "Queen of America's Dairyland," Miss Betty Gene Gardner, Ridgeview, Wis., christens the new vehicle as Gov. Oscar Rennebohm, Wisconsin's chief executive (right), and R. W. Podlesak, Janesville plant manager, look on.

BOYCE HOUSE— "Gives You Texas"

Visited Oklahoma City recently to make a speech, first I'd ever spoken in Oklahoma. Upon strolling out of the hotel soon after arriving, saw billows of black smoke--big fire was in progress in the center of the business district.

Next morning, was awakened by a huge clap of thunder. The Oklahoma City weatherman had predicted "no rain", so all the weather did was to present an electric storm, whip up a 59-mile an hour wind that flattened some temporary buildings and pour down three inches of rain in a couple of hours. In fact, the weatherman missed so badly, I thought I was back in Texas.

"FUSSY PILL ROLLERS"

McAlpine took me for a tour of the city. Half a mile before you get to the Capitol, there is a row of oil wells on State-owned land. The derrick of the last one is 100 yards or so from the Capitol but the hole was so curved by directional drilling that the bottom is under the Capitol. In front of that structure is an immense flight of steps. You climb it and then, before you can break in to a smile of triumph, there is an even more immense flight of steps in front of you. You climb that--and discover that you are on the third floor of that building! The Capitol is a very impressive edifice.

One of the biggest thrills in visiting Dallas is to ride the street cars. Lately, I've had to go back and forth between the office of Harley Hightower in Oak Cliff (he is the publisher of "Cub Reporter") and downtown Dallas quite a bit, and the street cars cross the Trinity on a long, trestle-like bridge, with a few rises, dips and curves thrown in--negotiated at so lively a pace that it reminds one of the "thriller" at an amusement park. Look far below and you see cars crawling along a highway, engines puffing through railroad yards and tiny figures of fishermen on the bank of the river. The wheels of the trolley rattle and clattered and it sways up and down and the wind tosses your hair. All this for only eight cents.

Three Farm Labor Camps Completed in Fisher County

Checks for $300 were presented to three Fisher County communities Tuesday morning at Roby, signifying construction of three reception centers for migratory farm laborers. The checks were presented by A. & M. College Extension Service in compliance with the government program.

Fisher County centers are located at Roby, Rotan and Sylvester. Although not completed, the money from the state will be used to speed completion in order that they will be ready for use soon.

Last fall Fisher County had no center of any kind. All three towns are now listed in a catalogue describing the state's 53 camps of this type.

This new Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil is the result of extensive research, conducted over a number of years by Phillips research scientists. It is of the modern detergent (self-cleaning), oxidation-resistant type. Lessons learned in developing heavy duty lubricants for Army tanks and trucks, the experiences of others who have developed detergent-type oils, and demands of engine manufacturers for their higher-speed, higher-pressure engines, have all been taken into consideration.

The base stocks from the Oklahoma fields, which oil men now recognize as among the finest in the world, are another contributing feature of this great new oil.

This new Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil is now on sale at all Phillips 66 Dealers. We urge you to provide your car with our finer, newer automotive lubricant.

Getting telephones for those waiting

1 Besides a telephone instrument, we need cables and switchboards to furnish telephone service.

2 Factories are turning out this complex equipment faster and faster.

3 But the need is nation-wide. In the Southwest alone, equipment is needed in 700 cities to serve 235,000 people. There are still shortages and delays, but we are getting our share of what the factories produce and we're putting it in as quickly as we can, in as many places as we can. One thing we do know...if ingenuity and hard work can bring it about, we'll have this job licked one of these days.

Ojeda White Is Wed Sunday To Elvis Wallace

Miss Ojeda White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. White, became the bride of Elvis Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Wallace, in a double ring ceremony read Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene with the pastor, Rev. J. T. Crawford, officiating.

Wedding vows were read before the altar banked with arrangements of greenery and gardenias. An arrangement of red and white roses decorated the piano. Mrs. Joe McCrary played traditional wedding music preceding the nuptials.

Miss Marvina White attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore a powder blue embroidered dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride was attractive in a two-piece aqua blue dress and wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served in the bride's home with her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Guy White as co-hosts.

The dining table was centered with the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake. Crepe myrtle was used in decorations for the table and buffet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left for a trip to San Angelo; and are now at home in Hamlin, where both are employees of the Celotex Corporation.

Both are graduates of the Hamlin High School. She attended business school in Abilene for two years. He served in the Navy for a long period during World War II.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Otis Bowyer of Anson and John Carpenter, Jo Anne Clark and Felix Saeed, all of Celotex.

Berdie Louise Daniel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Daniel of here, became the bride of William Roy Page, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Page of Abilene, in a beautiful candlelight ceremony read Friday evening at the St. Paul Methodist Church in Abilene.

Rev. Earl G. Hamlett, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before a white arch and background of greenery. Pedestal baskets of white gladioluses arranged in rainbow shape were placed on either side of a smaller arrangement of the flowers in a floor basket. Marked with white streamers, the family pews were decorated with nosegays of white flowers.

Deuter Morton, accompanied by Mrs. Owen Stinnett at the organ, sang "At Dawning" and "Lullaby". Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Stinnett.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon dress, which was made by the bridegroom's mother from a parachute given by a brother, Leroy Daniel. The dress featured a round neckline and a yoke of illusion bordered with seed pearls, sleeves pointed over the hand, and insets of Val lace between the skirt gores.

The bridal coronet, which was covered with seed pearls, and the floor-length veil were borrowed from Mrs. Rumsch, the 38-year-old bluish veil worn by Mrs. Page belongs to Mrs. Meta Rumsch of San Diego, California, mother-in-law of Mrs. Rumsch, sister of the bridegroom.

For something old, the bride wore a cameo lavalier, which belongs to an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Wiederbush of Austin. Something borrowed was an embroidered handkerchief of silk batiste owned by Mrs. Lee Balfanz. It was brought by her daughter, Mrs. Arville Richardson, from Lucerne, Switzerland.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations centered by a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Attendants for the bride were Beverly Balfanz, maid of honor who wore a yellow dress and carried a blue gladiola; and Mrs. Irving Cumbe Jr. and Mrs. Orville Rumsch, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore powder blue dresses, matching net headresses and carried yellow gladioluses.

Mrs. Daniel wore a white and aqua crepe evening dress with white pockets, white mesh gloves and a corsage of pink gladioluses. The bridegroom's mother wearing a powder blue chiffon dress with a pink gladiola corsage.

WE'RE ONE YEAR OLD!

As we observe our first anniversary we wish to thank you for your patronage and friendship.

Helpful ideas for busy canning days

by Carol Drake

Can, jam, preserve, conserve—that accounts for the spicy fragrances now wafting from kitchen windows. These tips for canning with little to-do are for the busy homemaker with much to do.

...A PRACTICAL FACT. Ten cent store work gloves protect hands when lifting jars from hot water bath or pressure canner, tightening jar lids or removing petcock.

...SAVE TIME: MAKE CHILI SAUCE AND TOMATO JUICE AT THE SAME TIME. Wash and quarter about 10 pounds tomatoes. Simmer until soft, about 30 minutes, with chopped celery, onion, green pepper, carrots and whole spices. (The spices loosely in cheesecloth bag, easy to remove.) Drain off juice and fill hot jars. Process in boiling water bath 35 minutes. Put tomatoes, celery, onion, green pepper and carrots through colander or food mill; add vinegar. Cook until pulp is thick enough to round up on spoon. Fill hot jars; process in boiling water bath 1 hour.

...KEEP CRYSTALS OUT OF GRAPE JELLY. Prepare juice and let stand overnight in refrigerator. Crystals form and settle to the bottom. Dip off juice, proceed with jelly making.

...BE PARTICULAR IF YOU WANT PRAISEWORTHY PICKLES! Use fresh spices—1 ounce whole mixed spices is enough for 4 gallons of pickles; soft water (soften hard water by boiling, letting stand 24 hours to settle, and good recipe. Write to Carol Drake for "PRIZE PICKLE RECIPES." Box 2110, Dept. PR, San Francisco 26, Calif.

TRUE STORIES of WEST TEXAS

(Copyrighted by N. H. Kincaid, 1947)

'The Lost Arrowhead'

An air of peacefulness permeated the Old Stone Ranch on that April morning of 1897. Located in an open valley that was crossed by the Clear Fork of the Brazos, its nearest neighbor was Camp Cooper, five miles to the east. It was a premeval setting, uncluttered by people; for neither Fort Griffin nor the later county seat of Albany had yet been founded.

But there was no peace for a agitated man pacing the stone enclosed yard of the old ranch. Two days before two of his sons, George and William, had joined other settlers going in pursuit of a band of marauding Indians. And last night he had dreamed that one of his boys was severely wounded. Now, he was waiting for a messenger, fearing the worst.

He was still pacing the yard when William and John Anderson, weary with an all night's ride, came with the news.

George had been shot. The arrow entering his body above the navel, had broken when the shaft was pulled out, and its head could not be found. They thought that perhaps it might have become lost in the loose sand when jerked out.

While their elders were making preparations to receive the wounded boy, should he still be alive, the children took turns acting as look-outs; but a full hour before the party's expected arrival the boys were all on the smoke house together. As the shouting group wound slowly into sight, a shout of joy went up and he news was called to the anxious parents. The full number of horsemen had been counted!

George Reynolds was indeed sitting on his horse. But was only from grim determination, he wanting to reassure those waiting loved ones, as they had come into sight of the Old Stone Ranch he had insisted that he be taken from the litter. This litter was made of the men's kayaks or cowhide packs swung between two horses. The horses were tied together, heads and tails, and led by two men on foot. Thus they had traveled the 35 or 40 miles, except when the horses had had to go single file; he was then laid across his saddle.

Dr. James D. Ray soon arrived from Weatherford, having been brought by Sam Newcomb, a brother-in-law of young Reynolds. They had ridden night and day to cover the 100 and some odd intervening miles.

George Reynolds, future cattle baron and assistant founder of the First National Banks of both Albany and Oklahoma City, regained his health. But his father's psychic premonition of death was not without foundation. Sixteen years and three and a half months after that fateful shot, an iron arrowhead, blunt and scaled with rust, was removed from George Reynolds' back.

Dr. States That Teeth Needs Constant Care

Hamlin people are warned this week of the fact that dental decay may often occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist. Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to the germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the practice of proper oral hygiene, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. said.

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to have their dental defects corrected, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the state health officer. "There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduced masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious conditions arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declares, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

Hamlin streets are always dotted with people any hour of the day and until about 11:00 p. m. Isn't that a compliment to our town? Everyone seems to enjoy coming here to buy or sell, or merely to meet their friends and have a friendly chat. There is a spirit of friendliness on the part of the citizenry and business men that makes them feel "at home". May such a spirit never die, for if it does our town will cease to be "The West's Best."

A traveler who happened through here on a recent Wednesday afternoon was so impressed with the large crowd, that he took time off to inquire from some city officials the reason for such a gathering. "Appreciation Day" was the answer. The crowds seem to be growing larger and more enthusiastic each week.

Most upsetting thing which has happened around this office the past week was our putting the wrong stickers on some of the Herald's last week. On those whose subscriptions were to expire soon we placed those little yellow slips that say "We hate to lose a friend and that's the reason we are so disappointed that you have not renewed your subscription, which expired several weeks ago," etc. They should have gotten the white ones with different greetings. If we made such a mistake on your paper, we're sorry. And we were glad to get a personal visit from those who were protesting. Thanks for coming in to tell us first and not getting angry and telling others.

When our husband was a little boy in Missouri he knew the Rev. Welborn Bowman, who conducted the final rites for Mrs. Martha Truman. He doesn't know Harry Truman though, which would make a much more interesting item for this column.

Does the water taste different lately?

We never thought we would drive

so far just to eat lunch under a tree. But we did go all the way to Abilene State Park before a tree was found to suit our pleasure. People are certainly queer. They will drive for miles and miles to spread their cold picnic food on the ground for the bugs and ants to help devour, when it would have been much simpler to stay home and eat a hot appetizing meal. Anything for variety, that is our motto.

The weather, as usual, is the most talked of subject today. And we are almost afraid to state that we need a good rain.

Many say the rain would do wonders for some crops and others argue that it would do harm to the cotton crop in that the bugs would appear. Guess we will just have to let the Good Lord decide what is best. He has better judgment than any of us anyway.

Only 120 more shopping days until Christmas. If you have nothing more important to do, count them.

Have you noticed the many beautiful daisies which are thriving in many yards in spite of the heat and dry weather? They certainly are pleasing to the eye on a warm day.

John C. Bryant, vice-president of Bryant-Link Company and husband of the former Arlene Morgan of here, was made vice-president of the American Retailers Association at Saint Louis last week. Quite a distinction. He says the only recognition she received here is that he is Arlene's husband.

The favorite daughter has a new box of modeling clay and the office force has tried their skill at making animals and objects with that stuff. You should see some of the monstrosities that we have on display. It is hard to determine whether they are man or beast.

Would you like to be guest columnist in this newspaper some week? If so, just let it be known. Be glad to turn over the old typewriter to a new face and some better ideas.

Meat Supply for Future Not Too Bright in Nation

Outside those persons in Jones and other counties who are raising their meat supplies, the overall outlook for increased meat supplies is not too bright.

So reveals a dispatch from Washington, which says the normal fall and winter movement in Jones and Fisher and neighboring counties will boost meat supplies about 15 per cent, but that 1948 is not so promising.

The county's 12,500 citizens are given this thorough summary of the meat outlook:

Meat prices this fall and winter should be "moderately lower" than they are now.

The crop outlook, coupled with anticipated large grain exports, may "actually result in some decrease" in meat supplies next year.

"The real cost of meat to consumers" has not increased much, it is stated, since the death of OPA if black market overcharges and subsidies are considered.

Prices, Jones County people are advised, have advanced this year because of a seasonal falling off in supplies—over which packers have no control—and the fact that general employment and wages are high, resulting in a greatly increased demand.

Service Medal Going To Veterans of Navy

Beginning August 1, Chief H. F. Lindsey, recruiter in charge of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station at Abilene, will issue the American Defense service medal and World War II Victory Medal to Navy veterans of Jones and neighboring counties who have been honorably discharged or discharged under honorable conditions.

So a Navy spokesman informs The Herald. The spokesman says that American Defense service medal, for which a number of Jones County boys will be eligible, will be awarded to all ex-Navy personnel who served on active duty between September 9, 1939, and December 7, 1941.

The World War II Victory Medal, it is stated, will be awarded to ex-Navy personnel who served on active duty in World War II between December 7, 1941, and August 31, 1946.

Enlisted personnel of Jones, Fisher and other counties who have or will be entitled to either or both medals will be asked to report to the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Abilene, with original discharge and notice of separation papers.

Honesty as to Purpose.

Executive (Interviewing applicant for responsible position)—"Are you absolutely honest, straightforward and trustworthy?"

"Yes, indeed, I am decidedly just that, sir!"

"If you should enter this office tomorrow and find a wallet containing $100.00 what would you do?"

"What would I do? I'd do nothing and live on my income."

At Nacozoches, Texas the will of a Civil War veteran is chiseled on his tombstone.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

By GEORGE DARDEN

B. F. Short hands the scribe a renewal to The Herald for one year. Mrs. J. O. Jones of Slaton sends $5 to be applied on the McCaulley Cemetery Fund.

Thanks to A. A. Gallaway for two subscriptions to The Herald, one for himself and the other goes to his son, Albert Jr. at Ralls.

Al Summerlin of Rotan sold his fast stepping two year old race horse, Blitzen Boy, to Tom Gray of Tulsa, Oklahoma for the fancy sum of $15,000 the other day. The deal was raced this summer.

This scribe attended the ginners convention at Hotel Windsor in Abilene last Wednesday, heard one of the best after dinner speakers in the state, a preacher from Jacksonville. As usual, he forgot his name.

Bobbie George Maberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Maberry arrived last Wednesday night after a long trip from Japan. For over a year Bob has been with the Army of Occupation in that distant land. He will soon get his discharge.

A. H. Hennington hands us $5 to be applied on the Cemetery Fund. Please mail your contributions for the fund so that the good work can continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maberry and son, Johnnie James, and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Maberry have recently returned from North Dakota where they have been prospecting for more land.

Sandra Jean and Ronald Neil Maberry spent last week in Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Maberry and family.

Peggy Humphries spent last week in the home of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones at Neinda.

W. C. Keans hands us two subscriptions for The Herald last Saturday before the dead line, for his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Gillis of Harlington and renews his paper. Thanks.

J. H. Anderson of Abilene sends in $5 for the Cemetery Fund and Vernon Harris hands us his check for $10 to go in the same fund.

The following subscribed for The Herald last Friday night at the tabernacle during the big show sponsored by the home demonstration club: Dick Maberry of Hamlin, B. F. Kemp, McCaulley, F. L. Rector of McCaulley, Luther Maberry or McCaulley, Harvey Hennington of McCaulley, Mrs. J. H. Mustain of McCaulley and Frank Jackson of McCaulley for two years. Thanks.

Over from Hamlin to attend the big show and feed last Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Maberry and Mrs. J. A. Jackson.

The Royston Baptist Church closed a successful revival last Sunday. Rev. Marlin from Waco did the preaching. Rev. Temple Lewis is pastor of the Royston Church. He is one pastor that really pastors his flock, looks after the sick and needy of his community and a live wire in every respect. It would be well for McCaulley Baptist Church to try to get Brother Lewis for a pastor.

Boys from McCaulley along with their sponsor R. B. Hennington, who attended the Leuders Camp were: Howard Kean, Bryan Hennington, Callens George and Jerry and Glenn Smith. An dthe girls who attended the camp for the girls at Leuders along with their sponsors, Mrs. R. B. Hennington and Miss Ruby Hennington were: Velma Jean Kean, Carrol Hennington, Jeneane Martin Joyce Davidson and Joatrice Steven-son.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hughes from Goose Creek visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Carlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carlen are moving this week to Lubbock where he has been employed.

Our thought for today—Men have little enough sense without drinking something to make them more crazy.

E. M. Hicks has been to Oklahoma on business the past week.

All night softball games will hereafter be played after church services during the revival meetings to be held in McCaulley this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean and daughter spent last week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dean in McCaulley. Their home is in Fort Worth.

The annual picnic and big feed sponsored each year by the McCaulley Home Demonstration Club was held under the tabernacle last Friday night. Plenty to eat of everything as usual, a funny and entertaining program including a Tom Brenemon Show with George Darden playing the roll of Tom Brenemon and Luther Rector of the radio announcer, L. B. (Tince) Miers as "Corny" and Roy Maberry as Doctor Quack. It was a great show with enough laughs to last a year. Last year the ladies sponsored a womanless wedding along with the big feed that folks are still talking about in this neck of the woods.

Mrs. Nute Stephens and son, "Butch" are spending a few days in the homes of D. M. Maberry and J. W.

Maberrys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maberry and son, Dannie, spent the week-end in Anson.

A Pot-Shot—See in the papers where Senator Pappy O'Daniel is coming back to Texas minus his hill-billy band for the purpose of telling Texans about how the country is going to the dogs. And Pappy is one of the lawmakers. But of course, it's no fault of Pappy's, to hear him tell it, and if it were not for him being in Washington the Mississippi River would change its course.

Did you ever stand on the street corner and listen to Pappy during one of his campaigns? Did you ever see him look anybody in the eye? He can't do it. Our way of thinking, it's poor business to send any man to Washington who can't look you in the eye when throwing off steam.

In the past Pappy has worked on the majority of the old, sick and afflicted. We wonder what kind of campaign tactics he will come out with now since he has thrown the old folks overboard, joined up with the Republican big shots and playing the devil in general.—A Darden-Gram.

Personal Items

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bonner and daughter, Montie of Benson, Arizona are here spending part of their vacation with her mother, Mrs. N. E. Stewart, and his brother, Harold Bonner and family.

Mrs. Vivian Beavers and Mr. and Mrs. William Waller of Fort Worth visited their mother, Mrs. D. J. Turner, this week.

Mrs. H. A. McWright returned last week from Los Angeles, California after a visit with her son.

HOSPITAL NEWS

REMEMBER that the Hamlin Hospital is a Memorial Institution of Service, to be dedicated to the memory of those young men who made the supreme sacrifice in the recent two terrible World Wars—an appropriate Memorial Tablet will carry their names.

REMEMBER that the Hamlin Hospital is being developed by voluntary contributions by those who desire to see a hospital in this Hamlin area.

REMEMBER that to be a share-holder in the hospital property it takes at least $50.00, but any amount or any kind of gift will help.

REMEMBER that the date of opening of the hospital will depend on the interest the people take. Many have said, "Oh, yes, we want it, and we will take a share, but we'll wait." Now months have passed, the building is nearing completion, and some keep saying, "We will, but later." Hamlin community has neglected their health interest for 40 years . . . why not join your neighbors and let us finish a good job well started? This thing is important to every person and family on a level basis. The poorest person can show his interest and have a part. . . . The richest can best do without a hospital and a doctor in Hamlin by going miles away and paying the extra costs . . . so THEY are going to pay somewhere, and why not leave it in Hamlin to develop this community instead of paying out to other communities or sending it to Washington?

Private Rooms to Be Furnished

Last week we reported one family who wishes to furnish private room. The list now stands:

J. B. Terrell and wife
George Malouf and wife
Fred Young and relatives.

An order is to be placed right away for this department of furnishings, and it will be better to order all we now need at one time. This is one way YOU can help. It should be regarded as a privilege and not a duty. The furniture must be nice, but not extravagant.

REMEMBER the Hamlin Hospital will be just what the people want it to be . . . just as nice and just as large. Manifest your interest while you have this chance. Do not throw "dampers" on something that might save a life! It takes hundred boosters to offset the damage one knocker can do.
